Dear Hal:

Enclosed is the copy of the story we did for tomorrow.

Much of this information came from a wire service story (I think it was U.P.I.) which a friend of mine read to me over the phone.

I'll asking him to send me a Xerox of that story (the U.P.I. story), and I'll send it along to you as soon as I get it. Surprisingly, although the radio station he works for received and used that story Saturday (the day after your press conference), I saw or heard it no where else, including the two San Francisco papers, the Los Angeles Times, the Washington Post, the New York Times and the Christian Science Monitor.
I wonder why?

I'll talk to you very soon,

Sincerely

Jo
